loading up my rifal Shouldnt be fucking with this physco. Steady revolving

Mission I wouldnt leave, them shakeing I fake it I take it a break in the Begining. I'm feeling like ready no waiting I'm in it I coudent be faded
Your never awakeing I'm more than amazing a priest that is crazy, a loco That they never be fakeing. I'm sitting and wondering leaving them wondering Sit leaving them wondering covering opening never

Me and for my enemy there is no remedy.

I'm still deep in the streets, still ripping the beats. I got it lock down,
From the top down, put them all down, when I get down, you see I smash the Mic and it's nothing to me. cause I'm flipping when I'm ripping like I see My Ete, I'm nothing nice as a matter of fact I get real sick, a maniac in my Habitat, I always handle my shit, I'm always ready to battle I'm leaving them Under the gravel, they can't hang with a man when I say to me their like Fragil.
