Dear music I would like to say thank you Cause I was down in the trenches and then you came through
I was thinking FAFSA you chill me out and I'll me out Inspiration big picture you could capture
I could do that so I focus as if I just had a dosage
Dr. Dre explosive so the people gotta notice
I double my kick game, I'm not new to stunts
I be taking hard pulls hope I don't give you the blunt
So I chill music section there or you have a deal
Now my shit is leaking everywhere just like the oil spill
Boy it's real, I assure you that he's urgent Cause nothing in this lifetime is really ever certain Freestyle middle school if only it was that simple College yeah we made it, faded behind them black windows
Car drive full of smoke, yeah we blowing off steam
I spit the Paul Pierce, and never change teams
When you're feeling down and low
You can make it better when you've got music
And if you don't know where to go
You can shake it better when the beat is alright
It's alright
Yeah, I said musically, upper level that is where we soon to be
Please take off your jewelry, that's time foolery
Robin Hood, my success is good for the community Fell in love with samples from diplomatic immunity
And now I used to shit the eat is just a spoon to me
Funny how the shit could get different it all humors me Back in the day with no beats I would have no room to spazz
No harder budget to pay for that now that's consumer math
If they told them that I spit they would sooner laugh Alexander McQueen specials that Puma has
I never feel down, this game has it's high points
Fabbing in the studio, prerequisite 5 joints
Sonicly they at the tail and I'm a hedgehog
It's Mr anything I spit will make your head nod
I think we back up on the track like let's jog
And we be rapping in arenas that's the next blog

When you're feeling down and alone
You can make it better when you've got music
And if you don't know where to go
You can shake it better when the beat is alright
It's alright
