Used to let chances pass me by
I've been called the dreamer
Told to open my eyes, yeah
Once was scared to test my limits
Today I let it all go
Try something different

And I'm a take the risk
Although I don't know where I'd land
Cause what's the point in waiting
If I'd never understand

And I'm jumping in head first
And if I fall, I'll learn to love it when it hurts
There's always, one more day
To find the missing pieces
No regrets, time to go for it
Head first
Head first, yeah

Hold my breath, let go of the edge
Who needs wings to take wings flight
It won't hurt to try

I'm a take the risk
Although I don't know where I'd land
Cause what's the point of waiting
If I'd never understand, yeah

And I'm jumping in head first
And if I fall, I'll learn to love it when it hurts
There's always, one more day
To find the missing pieces
No regrets, time to go for it
Head first

I'm walking through every door
There's no routes
And I got nothing to lose

And I'm jumping in head first
And if I fall, I'll learn to love it when it hurts

There's always, one more day
To find the missing pieces
No regrets, time to go for it
Head first
