Ooh,
Oh oh oh oh oh ooh,
Oh oh oh oh oh ooh,
Oh oh oh oh oh ooh,
Oh oh oh oh oh ooh...

Not so long ago,
You were in my arm,
I coulda held you for a million years,
I used to make you cry happy tears,
Yeah Yeah...

I know they say nothing last forever,
But war wasn't the way to end this,
Love doesn't create enemies, mies,
Enemies...

Three hundred and sixty degree,
My life has turned,
It's back on me,
Me,
I was first to say,
I'm not innocent,
But you're equally wrong...

Every story has more than two sides to it,
Best believe it,
You can paint me out to be the bad guy,
But there's still lost footage...

There's a scene to our movie,
That no one's ever saw,
Like the plane that's crashed,
There's a missing black box,
Now the whole world is against me,
When you put me through it (through it)...

'Cause no one's ever seen the lost footage,
Oh oh oh oh oh ooh,
The lost footage,
No one's ever seen the lost footage,
Oh oh oh oh oh ooh,

The lost footage,
Oh oh oh oh oh ooh...

Each of our memories and cut them all up,
Changed all of my words for your advantage,
But everyone thinks of me as just an Eddie, Eddie,
Eddie,
It's crazy the way you become a storyteller,
Throwing dirt to my name,
I get no credit,
Now your friends and family think I'm pathetic,
pathetic, pathetic...

Three hundred and sixty degree,
My life has turned,
It's back on me,
Me,
I was the first to say,
I'm not innocent,
But you're equally wrong...

Every story has more than two sides to it,
Best believe it,
You can paint me out to be the bad guy,
But there's still lost footage...

There's a scene to our movie,
That no one's ever saw,
Like the plane that's crashed,
There's a missing black box,
Now the whole world is against me,
When you put me through it (through it)...

'Cause no one's ever seen the lost footage,
Oh oh oh oh oh ooh
The lost footage,
No one's ever seen the lost footage,
Oh oh oh oh oh ooh,
The lost footage,
Oh oh oh oh oh ooh...

Look I have my mistakes baby,
You have your own ways,
About your,
That I learned eventually to tolerate,
I know I wasn't perfect,
So I won't point no fingers,
Losing you it hurts,
Hurts,
It hurts...

Every story has more than two sides to it,
Best believe it,
You can paint me out to be the bad guy,
But there's still lost footage...

There's a scene to our movie,
That no one's ever saw,
Like the plane that's crashed,
There's a missing black box,
Now the whole world is against me,
When you put me through it (You put me through it)...

'Cause no one's ever seen the lost footage,
The lost footage,
The lost footage,
No one's ever seen the lost footage,
Oh oh oh oh oh ooh,
The lost footage,
Ohhhh,
Ohhhh...

Losing you it hurts,
Hurts,
It hurts...

Losing you it hurts,
Hurts,
It hurts...

Losing you it hurts,
Hurts,
It hurts...

Losing you it hurts,
Hurts,
It hurts...
