I thought I locked the door
And we evened the score
I was sure that you were gone, for good this time
I was fine takin the fault
Just really wanted to move on
Left it all and started over again yeah

Cause I did it all, couldn't win
You had my heart in your hand
Best thing you ever did was let me be
To get back my identity

Out of all the people in the world
Why'd I have to run back to into you
Couldn't live without meetin my rival
I was just gettin over leavin you
Took the hardest step
A second best was all I was to you
Stay with my rival

I wish I could've dodged from bumpin into you
If only I had taken an other round
My heart wouldn't be sore
From reopening scars
Who turned back the glass(?) and
Took me back into this nightmare

Out of all the people in the world
Why'd I have to run back to into you
Couldn't live without meetin my rival
I was just gettin over leavin you
Took the hardest step
A second best was all I was to you
Stay with my rival

See what hurts the most is how I always knew
You had someone else
While I stayed faithful
You were just waitin for
Me to give up and call it off
It took me time to realize

I'm better than you
So stay with my rival

Out of all the people in the world
Why'd I have to run back to into you
Couldn't live without meetin my rival
I was just gettin over leavin you
Took the hardest step
A second best was all I was to you
Stay with my rival

Out of all the people in the world
Why'd I have to run back to into you
Couldn't live without meetin my rival
I was just gettin over leavin you
Took the hardest step
A second best was all I was to you
Stay with my rival
