Don't turn your back, turn your back
Please don't turn your back baby
Don't turn your back, turn your back
Please don't turn your back baby
Don't turn your back, turn your back
Please don't turn your back baby
Don't turn your back, girl don't turn your back

There's smoke in the air, she dropped the bomb on me
Look at all this debris everywhere
Standing in love, when i feel she's scared of me
But i'm not her enemy, almost not necessary
I'm a soldier for you baby

Hold your fire, look in my eyes yeah
Think i heard you, don't hesitate then
Pull the trigger, but you'll be so sorry

This is some case of mistaken identity
Lay down your weapon towards me
Lay down and pull, i'm on your side, so let down your guard
I can erase all your scars, i can erase all your scars
I love you the way that you are
Oh my baby, so let me erase all your scars

She fades to the dark Cause she loved to hop on bars and dress it up in camouflage
If it takes forever, i'll search just to rescue you Do whatever it takes just to prove I'm not temporary, i'll save you if you let me

Hold your fire, look in my eyes yeah
Think i heard you, don't hesitate then
Pull the trigger, but you'll be so sorry

This is some case of mistaken identity
Lay down your weapon towards me
Lay down and pull, i'm on your side, so let down your
guard

I can erase all your scars, i can erase all your scars
I love you the way that you are

I want us to live another day
Threw my heart like a grenade
We've come to far to quit, girl i'm worth the risk
I'm not letting you go, you're not letting me go
I'm gonna make this right
No matter what i'll fight for your love
I'll fight for your love
I put it on my life, don't matter what i'll fight for your love

This is some case of mistaken identity
Lay down your weapon towards me
Lay down and pull, i'm on your side, so let down your
guard
I can erase all your scars, i can erase all your scars
I love you the way that you are
