I had the blues last night, I've got 'em again today
My man told me he was going away

Trouble, trouble, is all I can see
Looks like my man has turned his back on me

Just let me tell you what your friends will do
Spit in your face and then they'll talk about you

Me and my girlfriend, went out for a little run
When she see my man, she told him what I had done

Bring me a pint of whiskey, and a bottle of beer
If I get drunk, I sure don't care

(spoken:
Harmonize me, Daddy!
Oh, run into me, but don't hurt me!)

Take me back, baby; try me one more time
I'd do everything to satisfy your mind

Listen, people, to what I'm telling you
Don't let your left hand know what your right hand do
