(verse 1)

Los angeles the city of dreams where homies runnin up a mug if u know what i mean from LA to the bay we all blue raggin chillin at the park pelon is straight bangin rollin down theez streets get into the swap meets bitches lookin hella fine so we stay cleesed Im bald headed and damn near brown i got those J owls bumpin that gansta sounds steady rollin thru the county sun top down three wheels and now we havin some fun and you know the shit straight wont stop im on hundred spun datons and always ready to drop oh yeah now the party has begun if you drop a dime your ass better run cuz im on my third and straight ready to hit the first stupid mother fucker tryin to ruin my mix bitch

(chorus)

this is how we livin everday in LA in theez streets theres no peace cant you see this is how we livin everday in LA uuuuh yeah

(verse 2)

heres a toast for the homies doin life for the big south side up in the sky brown pride i keep this shit up through my veins it takes alot of heart to bang in LA thru theez fuckin streetz aint nothin but a struggle hang tight and dont let no one burst your bubble keep it real and put down the straps and thank the lord for making you a man lets come together we all got to ride simon lets get toghether and represent that brown pride sur califas is my home and this is where we're starting with the lil homies always on patrol rollin thru theez ghetto cayihornes creased up and ownin on they told us with ghetto birds always right behind us but fuck it cuz imma ride 4 my side (Repeat chorus)

I cant forget the homies that i lost in theez streets you gotta pay the cost i pore some liquor and roll up some herb reminensin about the days we be posted at the curb remember nights we all used to party getting high and drinking some bacardi los angeles the heartless city evertday is like a story simone a new begining wonderin if we're gon make it to see another day well pinche one time always wants to see us locked away cuffed up like a sin i wish one day all this drama soon will change we gotta live we gotta hold our own and show the world how the southside rolls in the union we straight focused soldiers ghetto mined and aint no one gon hold us (repeat chorus)
