(verse 1)

aqui stoy thinking about you carnalito, everytime you cross my mind tu sabes que me aguito i remember when we used to kick back and have a blast, its hard to belive that was back in the past i remember those times like it was yesterday i know if i was there and you here it be the same way we never thought we go through anything like this now we sit back and pray saying rest in peace all our homies got your name tagged behind their neck some on their chest and back arm just to show respect your always on our mind everyday and everynight we miss you carnal and things just aint right

(CHORUS)

these firme memories of my brother the feel so wonderful rest in peace rest in peace

(VERSE 2)

every chance we get we sittin by your gravesight thinking about you looking up in the sky mom sits back wiping tears from her eyes we sit and talk about you and she starts to cry she says how much she wants to hold you back again in her arms like before holding you by your hand everynight we pray and think about you bro its hard to accept that you had to go i sit back and drift and reminisce about you of all the firme tiempos and all the things we used to do simon carnal your in my method all the time tu vienes primero and you'll never stay behind your kids are growing up and they ask about you bro they say they miss daddy but i guess you know we see you in the sky looking down at them they stare at one another like they dont understand damn carnal if only we can take time back to the days when everything was fine uuuuhh im missing you

they feel so wonderful rest in peace these firme memories of my brother they feel so wonderful rest in peace rest in peace

(VERSE 3)

sometimes i sit at the pat and the living room cheking out your pictures listening to some oldies to the ones you liked the ones you used to bump confessing the feeling try me and lets get it on takes me back to the days when you were here sometimes i close my eyes and i could hear you real clear rest in peace in the heavens up above those who left behind for once got nothing but love simon carnal thats how it is your being missed now all we have are the firme memories we used to share in the days when you were here with us now another firme brother and a son thats lost i know will see each other cause will be there someday rest in peace carnal for you we all pray

this firme memories of my brother(carnal) the feel so wonderful(do you hear me callin) rest in peace (i wanna kick it with you my brotha back to back like we used with all the homies homies en mi corazon carnal)
