Stories never end 'til you come to conclusions
Carolina Rua has a hand in my confusion.
Waits for me to choose which quarter to bend in.
To Susie-make-me-blue, or the redhead I'm attending.

Now Carolina Rua has my heart and all I want to do's
Go down the windy road where my Carolina goes
Down the crooked road where Carolina goes to school
Mo Carolina Rua, do you love me?
Tell me true, tell me...

Standing on three queens, thought the game was over.
Then, from the blue, Carolina's at my shoulder
Laughter in her eyes and a smile that touches all the guys
I'm down the windy road where my Carolina goes
Down the crooked road where Carolina goes to school
Mo Carolina Rua, do you love me?
Tell me true, tell me...

Oh Carolina rua has my heart and all I want to do's
Go down the windy road where my Carolina goes
Down the crooked road where Carolina goes to school
Mo Carolina Rua, do you love me?
Tell me true, tell me...

Oh Carolina, Carolina
Do you love me?
Oh, tell me true
Carolina
