Lil Twist: (Verse 1)

Look baby, I just wanna be wit'ya been up all night thinking and just lookin through pictures, I remember when we use to just be cruising in ya Lex and now im sittin here skimming through old texts, whats next?
And uhh, Im tired of being a single one, so lets just go back to them old days, before we split ways you know like when we did our own thing,
You know when we didnt care what no one say, You feel Me?
You introduced me to the real me, and if my mama knew i slipped she'd probably kill me But besides that, i miss you and thats real and im telling you thats how i really feel So lets just sit down, negotiate, have a meeting.
Romantic date over the water, plan a weekend and pick up where we left off, Talk about the good times, and leave the rest off...

Khalil: (Chorus)

So if you come back back, i'll do all over, turn back the time, Lets start this love over again, over again...

So if you come back back, i'll do it all over, turn back
the time, Lets start our love over again, over again...

Khalil: (Hook)

Been thinkin bout this for a while, Girl i miss your love, I cant forget your smile
And I just wanna let you know, I never should of let you go
And girl I'm just sayin, I was playin, and I dont wanna hear no complainin
I just wanna make you smile, So tell me if you down, Ohhhhh,
And you're the only thing I need, I cant believe that I just let you go....Just like a fool,
And I just wanna make it right, Just let me know just what you wanna do Just let me know...

Khalil: (Chorus)

So if you come back back, i'll do all over, turn back the time, Lets start this love over again, over again...

So if you come back back, i'll do it all over, turn back
the time, Lets start our love over again, over again...

Lil Twist: (Verse 2)

Cute face, nice smile. But damn I aint seen it in a while I promise, I'll slow up babe and stop being wild, as long as our love is restyled, You feel me?
Red bottom, Louie lace, and Prada, like choose any bag of product, time to do this all, over again Get it started how it started, But damn I should of wished we never parted...Just imagine what we couldve been, or where we wouldve been But just forget all that, babe I'm a better man, so lets do it bigger and better and act like this previous event happened never Oops i meant never happened, Or we can act like I'm just rapping..Maybe Point is i love you for real and Im hoping that you really know the deal Khalil....

Khalil:

Back it up lil shawty back it up right, Back it up lil shawty back it up right now

Yeah, Yeah

Khalil: (Chorus)

So if you come back back, i'll do all over, turn back the time, Lets start this love over again, over again...

So if you come back back, i'll do it all over, turn back
the time, Lets start our love over again, over again...

Yeah-Yeah Yeahhh Yeah-Yeahhh, Ohh Ohh, Ohh No No
No-Ohhhh No, No No..Yeah-Yeahh

Chorus Begins..First Part ONLY then fades
