[Intro]

Lil Wayne: yea

Juelz Santana: uhh uhh uhh uhh

Lil Wayne: yea

Juelz Santana: I cant feel my face, yea, I make the sound so beautiful, u did

Lil Wayne: yea, I no, elz talk to them

[Hook 2x]

When the levees broke

when the planes hit

whats going on ma nigga

You know the same shit

After Katrina, after the towers

We holds our heads high after disaster

[Hook]

When the levees broke

when the planes hit

whats going on ma nigga, the same shit

After Katrina, after the towers

We holds our heads high after disaster

[verse 1]

They couldn't kill me holla if u feel me

Hurricane Katrina victim in the building

Okay, day time soldier, night time rider,

911 survivor,yeah I feel u, and who am

I to try to keep hope alive

When I'm seeing dead babies floating by Damn, burning buildings, flamed up,they couldn't take da heat so they jumped. Man, they want to want to transform the streets we grew up on A deck of cars with no aces luck gone uhh, tower 1 fell, tower 2 fell, now everybody screwed like loose nails

I'm like what are we to do with a house with no roof look up and pray to whose above you

God, yeeup, now just look in your seat, black people, white people, all covered in debris, yeaah.

[Hook]

When the levees broke
when the planes hit
whats going on ma nigga
You know the same shit
After Katrina, after the towers
We holds our heads high after disaster

When the levees broke

when the planes hit
whats going on ma nigga, the same shit
After Katrina, after the towers
We holds our heads high after disaster

[verse 2]

Try to keep our head up, and not get fed up, nope, but it seems like they won't let us. Yea, and I was told that life ain't shit and this world ain't neither This is why I scream fuck the world not the people, Nope. Yes, but in the belly of the beast, people get swallowed like meat, eat.
And your president was lying while my people was dying
In the helicopter flying looking down reading signs, Help SOS, somebody save us, attend at his side, where our savior
And, I've seen tragedy I've look it in the eye Ain't being at ma lowest so I choose to get high. High, so high, that my name should be sky, its a bird its a plane, no its I Yea, I holla five on four till they bury me man I'm the father of New Orleans and I'm a family man, you heard me

[Hook]

When the levees broke
when the planes hit
whats going on ma nigga
You know the same shit
After Katrina, after the towers
We holds our heads high after disaster

When the levees broke
when the planes hit
whats going on ma nigga, the same shit
After Katrina, after the towers
We holds our heads high after disaster

Now, if i should die before my time, lord take care of jew jew and his mom please, take care of little jah please, take care all the kids please, cause through us they live. yeah, lord please keep your eyes on me, and if i die, i pray my soul you keep, and i don't want this world to kill me, but i'm getting so weak. I can't take much more, i just want to be free. Free, they said they knew there was a problem with the levees, and they did nothing, nothing. Clinton approved da money, and Bush did nothing. Nothing. So, Katrina hit, and three days later, Fema just commin. I'm feeling like what the hell is really goin on, planes hittin buildings, whats next king kong? I wish we didn't even have a reason for this song, but we do, moment of silence for the people that's gone. Shhhhh. To those restin in peace, those dead and deceased, soon again we meet. Or til im high and drunk and my cars swerves off road, haa. I'll meet you at the crossroads. Lord please keep your eyes on me, and if i die i pray my soul you keep, and i don't want this world to kill me, but im getting so weak, i can't take much more, i just be free

[Hook]

when the planes hit
whats going on ma nigga
You know the same shit
After Katrina, after the towers
We holds our heads high after disaster

When the levees broke
when the planes hit
whats going on ma nigga, the same shit
After Katrina, after the towers
We holds our heads high after disaster
