Everybody wanna be fly til you swat 'em
But who am I to talk? I aint shittin' roses
We in in the same picture but we all got different poses
I'm looking in my rearview, I see the World in it
I try to slow down, but I get rear ended
PAUSE! Like a red light, I'm dead right!
Highway to Heaven, God do you see my headlights?

They say you don't know what you're doing till you stop doing it
Well call me clueless cause I do this Attention all shooters, I'm a shooting star
Life is a course and I'mma shoot for Par
I'm searching for today instead I found tomorrow
And I put that shit right back like I'll see when I find tomorrow
Young Money CMR, Blood like a scar
Weezy F baby and I do it all for y'all
