im goin for the gold, my heart is on control my mind is on succeed, and i am in the lead dont buy into the schemes, the signs socialty just giant and u tease, bring triumph and belief im a lion on redeem, inspired by the green never tired nor fatigued, never defiant to my team never lyin on a thing until im lyin on a thing, hooked to wires and things, ima die as a king

if i dont do it now, ima try it again and when i do accomplish it, ima try it again ima riot insane, ima lie in my mane hangs down to my strings, and they're tied to the game i stay dry when it rain, im tired of the fame got everything to gain, and im proud of the pain the pride and the plain the wise and the strange denied by the sane, besides we're the sane whos guidin the train, whos flyin the plane whos drivin the lane, who dies when it bang who fires when it bang, whos lies in a aim two lives in a drain, who cries when they sang you hide but u cant, u high but u aint I advise u to think you'll find what u cant revive what u taint, survive what u paint super size what you shrank, the fries and the drank admired as a saint, defined by my rank combined with my strength, my time and my length ima iron out the kinks, yes im on the brink and in a eye ima wink, ima retire in a bank

CHORUS

Victory consistently, train all year to be enemies misery no stress visibly, neither does it into me I think positively, u cant harm me mentally Not physically, not spiritually Youll never get rid of me,
I am the epidemy of this is what you did to me Nothings what you did for me, nothings what you give to me

I take whatever im visualing, I break all of the limiting I shake all of the gimmicking, the fakery, the trickery Nurse how sick is he, worse im sickening, Ill be at the finish line first how quick is he,
Ima make sure they mention me, for the next century,
I aint wit the bickering, im full of dignity,
Im full of energy, pull out the inner me,
A bull after dinner meat, I stood in the winter heat,
It could be the end of me, but good be defending me.

CHORUS

Im allergic to cheatin,
I hate failure and I am in love with achievement,
Above and beneath it, a hug when I greet it My eyes on the prize and I love when I seek it Done wit the speakin, begun wit the preachin,
I pray until I am one wit the deacon,
I play until we won whatever we win
I play until I have won and then I re-win
