This is a dedication

(Verse)

Rest in peace
So now I'm burying the burner in the bama
I carry the concerns of my mama
I'm married to the money and the power
And still I got guns on my side
For my private affairs
Yeah I know that water get cold but I dive in it bare
And swim through it alive and aware
I been through it You probably been to it
So now I dip through it
And they respect me like a pistol I'm hip to it
I gets to it like just do it I miss doin it
A hundred shot drum play em some clip music
I am the drum major the drum section waiting
All it takes is one signal you can get a cadence
You can get it catered I'm at your service like a waiter
When its beef I be comin in ya neighbor
I put potatoes on the heater no label later
Now have me make mashed potatoes
French fry nig*as I bench then fire nig*as bye nig*as I wet em up like rivers now flow by nig*as I'm drip and dry fly now squint ya eyes bit*hes
I Dimpsy time bit*hes hop out of new Bently's
I'm old school like a loose winston
Like since when they make bullet proof skin
I put it to ya chin and grin and sin and then
I sin again then I'm gone in the wind
And I'm dumping my Scarlett O'Hara in the Canal
Cuz I'm not getting stopped wit cop parafanel(paraphernalia)

Now I preparing a L not preparing to fail
Cuz my flow is for real like the Sahara in hell
Comparisons is irrelevant I'm an arrogant male
Yeah I can handle it I can graduate Yale
Yeah they featherweight i sporadically ill
The fu*k out and you can automatically killed
Yeah Peep the narrative of the New Orleans Heritage
You can go get ya evidence I tell where and tell you when I was prescribing medicine you was getting ya lesson in I was getting my adolescence in Lesser than GOD only better than my last that's what strive for Dwelling on my past I get high
So I light it up and smoke
Keep that Mary Poppins popping like a toaster
I'm Supercalifragilisticexpialidocious
Can't forget that purple potion Oh sh*t
You h*e nigg*s is *ss that's h*e s*it
So Sh*t I blow bigger in MASH and laugh
Like oh s*it I'm the best no s*it
