you see right thru me
how do you do that shit
how do you
you let me win, you let me ride you let me rock, you let me slide and when they lookin, you let me hide defend my honor, protect my pride the good advice, i always hated but lookin' back, it made me greater you always told me, forget the haters, jus' get my money, jus get my weight up know when im lien, know when im cryin', its like you got it, down to a science why am i tryin, know you aint buyin i try to fight it, back with defying you make me laugh, you make me horse, from yellin at you and gettin at you pickin up dishes, throwin them at you why are you speakin, when no one asked you
what are we doing, could you see thru me cause you say nicki and i say who me and you say no you and i say screw you then you start dressin and you start leavin and i start cryin and i start screamin the heavy breathin but whats the reason always get the reaction you one that im actually frontin im askin you somethin yo answer this question

class is in session
tired of letting passive aggression
capture my soul
ok you got it , its in the can before i played it you knew my hand you can turn a freak on to a cold nigga got the peep hole to my soul

YO !

YO!

wont you jus stop lookin through me cus' i cant take it no i cant take it
