I've thrown caution to the wind
I've loved I've lost and I have sinned
They say it's brighter on the other side
From here right now the sky looks blue

It's the only world I know
This my heart my home
Don't push me to leave
Right here I have everything I need

I'll play your greatest shade of blue
- Darling
Don't make me stop 'til I get through
Don't let me die please like that salesman
Don't let me walk out in despair

It's the only world I know
This my heart my home
Don't ask me to leave
Right here I have everything I need

Here there's no promises of miracles
I don't have dreams that can't come true

It's the only world I know
This is my heart me home
The only world I know
The only world I know
