Aha

Rock wit me now

Dance wit me now

Move wit me now

It's the weekend

CÂ'mon

[Lil' J]

Aiiyo I heard the party packed from the front to the back

We gon' tear the roof off, make the floor collapse

Jump out the Porsche, candy-gloss, hunchback

Slid right in, gave security dap, they know who I be Don' need no ID,

I'm either on the dance floor, or VIP

I stack that cheese, at club 112 lurkin', sippin' on virgin daquiris

That's me, J I'm the one,

besides lookin' quiet Why don' you slide here hun,

let your hair down Lets have some fun,

it's the weekend, and the party just begun

[Kandi]

To the windows, to the walls

The club is packed so that's all

See my girls and all my doggs

Won't leave till the window's fog

It's the weekend, what you doin'

Get out the house, wanna see you movin'

Gotta get your money right cuz it's on tonight

Yeah it's the weekend baby

[Lil' J]

Aiiyo Jermaine you should see the way I'm gamin' these dames

I'ma soldier, my boy, six Rovers stay in your lane

Chicks get whippa peeled how I grip the wheel

So fast get whiplash, when the wheels peel

I'm so ghetto but the broads still love me

I never fall off my game never rusty,

J make the girls stop and stare

The way the chains swing back and forth like a rockin' chair
It's hot in here, why does the jungle, why does the rumbles in the tunnel

Let's pop in here, from 80 to Club Centuries, to the good bar
Everybody know Lil' J the Hollywood star

[Kandi]
To the windows, to the walls
The club is packed so that's all
See my girls and all my doggs
Won't leave till the window's fog
It's the weekend, what you doin'
Get out the house, wanna see you movin'
Gotta get your money right cuz it's on tonight
Yeah it's the weekend baby

[Lil' J]
When I'm in ATL I'm with JD and them,
Da Brat, Bow Wow, JE and them
Westcoast, I'm with Big Snoop and them,
Doc Dre, LT, in the coupe with them
In New York, you know I'm with Roc-a-fella
Jay-Z, Beanie, and Bleek in the drop together
When I'm in the Midwest I'm with R. Kelly and them
Rockland, St. Lunatics, Nelly and them

[Kandi]
To the windows, to the walls
The club is packed so that's all
See my girls and all my doggs
Won't leave till the window's fog
It's the weekend, what you doin'
Get out the house, wanna see you movin'
Gotta get your money right cuz it's on tonight
Yeah it's the weekend baby

[Kandi]
To the windows, to the walls
The club is packed so that's all
See my girls and all my doggs
Won't leave till the window's fog
It's the weekend, what you doin'
Get out the house, wanna see you movin'
Gotta get your money right cuz it's on tonight
Yeah it's the weekend baby
It's the weekend
