If you love me you would say in front of da world,
If you love me you would say in front of da world,
If you love me you would say in front of them
Boy you ain't gotta front with none of them
If you love me you would tell em that I'm your girl
If you love me you would you would say in front of da
world
If you love me you'll let the world know it,
You say it out of your mouth but I rather your heart show it,
Actions speak louder than words
Angels fly higher than birds
This was god's work but you couldn't see,
God blessed you,
When he sent you to me
See ya boys don't see the side that I see, I told you
You ain't gotta front for da streets
We were born to ride, bonnie and clyde
Like your favorite gun I was right by your side,
See my love is true, yeah you know this is true
Everything is all f*cked up because of you
If you love me you would say it in front of the world,
If you love me you would say it in front of the world
If you love me you would say it in front of them
Boy you ain't gotta front with none of them
If you love me you would tell em that I'm your girl
If you love me you would you would say in front of da
I need a real dude I could deal with,
Share a family and a house on the hill with Take trips to paris not the hiltons, I'm talking bout
France
True romance, walk the red carpet together and hold hands,
Style on the haters,
We ain't got the fans cause right now
Love don't live here, first the record sales,
Something gotta give here,
Few niggas out there tryin live
Here put a ring on it, drop a few kids here
Yeah happy valentines day,
But if you really love me you would show me everyday,

everyday, everyday
If you love me you would say it in front of the world,
If you love me you would say it in front of the world
If you love me you would say it in front of them
Boy you ain't gotta front with none of them
If you love me you would tell em that I'm your girl
If you love me you would you would say in front of da
But it's no trust and all we do is fuss
Yeah happy valentines day,
But if you really love me you would show me errday, errday, errday
If you love me you would say it in front of them
Boy you ain't gotta front with none of them
If you love me you would tell em that I'm your girl
If you love me you would you would say in front of da
