"The Best One For The Job"

I am not a pirate or a sailor or a rogue,
I cannot fight a fire or circumvent the globe;
But you see I am me and I think you'll all agree,
I really am the best one for the job.

No one else can smile exactly just the way I do,
No one has my sparkle in their eye,
When it comes to being me, I really must be frank,
I have the job sewn up so don't apply to do it.

I am not a pirate or a sailor or a rogue,
I cannot fight a fire or circumvent the globe;
But you see I am me and I think you'll all agree,
I really am the best one for the job.

No one else can feel the sunlight shining on my face,
None can use my legs to jump up high.
I must be the only person suited to be me,
So no one else need even go and try to do it
I am not a pirate or a sailor or a rogue,
I cannot fight a fire or circumvent the globe;
But you see I am me and I think you'll all agree,
I really am the best one for the job.

Every single person is a special entity,
I cannot be you you can't be me,
Run and jump and celebrate the person that you are,
Be happy with yourself that is the key, (so do it).

I am not a pirate or a sailor or a rogue,
I cannot fight a fire or circumvent the globe;
But you see I am me and I think you'll all agree,
I really am the best one for the job.
