Let's conquer, Big Daddy, Kevin Miller
Grandma Miller an' Grandma Elizabeth, I miss you here

To my love ones gone, I gotta know
Where do we go from here? I gotta know
To my love ones gone, I gotta know
Where do we go from here? I gotta know

Dear God, I remember when times was hard
Gunshots echoed the block like passin' cars
I miss my cousin Lance, look out for him
I love him, he died so young, You musta had a place for him

My Uncle Kevin, the family miss him
He in Heaven, I ain't really understand until I turned seven
Every year that go by, I try to understand why
Every time someone born, somebody gotta die

It's sad, I hate to see my mama cry
It's okay, come here, Mom an' wipe your eyes
Hard to focus, kids playin' kids in school, totin' guns
Teachers can't teach now, they nervous

Sittin', thinkin' to myself what we do to deserve this
Seein' kids die for no purpose
Sittin' thinkin' to myself what we do to deserve this
Seein' kids die for no purpose

(Take my pain away)
To my love ones gone, I gotta know
Where do we go from here? I gotta know
To my love ones gone, I gotta know
Where do we go from here? I gotta know

(Take my pain away)
To my love ones gone, I gotta know
Where do we go from here? I gotta know
To my love ones gone, I gotta know
Where do we go from here? I gotta know

The fast life is much too short, that's what we all thought
In an' out of courts for assaults of all sorts
Seein' you go had me feelin' low
Just to know a brotha was about to blow
But the world was killin' him slow

Your fans miss you wit a passion
An' they wonder are you still alive an' still laughin'
I still stress over your death, caught four to your chest
Laid to rest to the west, may your soul be blessed

An' Lord knows how we miss you, murder is a big issue
Can't stop the blood wit tissue when the slugs hit you
All your family an' friends shed tears
'Cause for years we knew you would make it, it was clear

A Toast to both coasts, we need to stand close
'Cause it ain't no silence
When God is right in front of your eyes
Awakin' the time to shine, in the time, you'll find
I roll a dutch 'cause the world miss you much
Take my pain away

(Take my pain away)
To my love ones gone, I gotta know
Where do we go from here? I gotta know
To my love ones gone, I gotta know
Where do we go from here? I gotta know

(Take my pain away)
To my love ones gone, I gotta know
Where do we go from here? I gotta know
To my love ones gone, I gotta know
Where do we go from here? I gotta know

I shed tears for da world, death carries no age limit
To my love ones up there, pray for me
Life is struggle, oh, yeah, Lance, picture this boy
I'm rappin' an' ballin', ya heard
R.I.P to my peeps, I miss y'all, I miss y'all

(Take my pain away)
To my love ones gone, I gotta know
Where do we go from here? I gotta know
To my love ones gone, I gotta know
Where do we go from here? I gotta know

(Take my pain away)
To my love ones gone, I gotta know

Where do we go from here? I gotta know
To my love ones gone, I gotta know
Where do we go from here? I gotta know
