Chorus:

A players eyes
I seen the lies of a players eyes
My heart still cries
A players eyes to forget him I try Don't believe what you hear Repeat 2x

I looked into a players eyes to see what i thought was love.
But now i see they were just lies it wasn't from above.
he said, 'I love you baby, we'll stay together forever i'll make you my lady, we will never part.

Repeat Chorus 1x

You hurt me player boy don't think I can love any more Can't you see I'm not a toy you're the one im crying for here I am pretending not to care pretending it doesn't matter but deep inside i think it soo unfair that now my heart is shattered.

Look deep inside a player eyes you'll see the game of love he's so good at tellin lies but but he has'nt been always in love

In the past he has been burned when she said, 'This is the end'
But now i take it he has learned to never fall in love again.

Repeat Chorus 3x
