Oxy oxy Oxycotton oxy Oxycotton

Oxy oxy oxycotton oxy oxycotton

Oxy oxy oxycotton

Take one of these pills and you'll be be high for real

[Verse 1]

Come on Juicy take two Oxycontin go on and get fooled

I got liquor and crown to wash it down you'll be downtown snappin rolls

All you gotta do is chill it's only two lil pills

Call me in an hour let me know exactly how you feel

Oxys get up in ya like synthetic

It can have you tweakin up 10, 15, 20 hours

mutherfuckin geekin

Over the weekend get some sleep and you'll snap back in a couple of days

Don't be trippin your brain is rippin its okay to be afraid

Just don't get addicted it's like synthetic heroin

If you mix it with liquor you will get your scare on

Don't end up in the waffle house at 5 in the morning

You gon' be pukin up your guts in a couple of minutes and I warned ya

[Chorus 2x]

[Verse 2 (Juicy J)]

It's 4 in the mornin' let me see what Juice is up to {ring} (hello?)

What up? (Man fuck you!)

Okay I guess Juice is not doin to well

He just cussed me out he must be high as fuckin hell

I tried to tell him he didn't know what he was fuckin with but he insisted

I just can't believe he actually let me get him twisted

He knew who he was fuckin with he produced the first one bitch

Even Lord Infam must took two and ended up ridin' through a ditch

And I ain't playin' when I say that these muthafucka's will kill you

They're proscribed to cancer patients but I got something here to deal ya

This is oxycotton part II you've waited for this song

And I was so high when I first wrote it I didn't know I spelt it wrong muthafucka

[Chorus 2x]
