Iâ€™m half a woman with half a heart
And half a mind when weâ€™re apart
But when youâ€™re here with me
Iâ€™m complete

My heart had been so uninspired
Love left a lot to be desired
But when youâ€™re here with me
Iâ€™m complete

Youâ€™re the half that makes me whole
The missing piece, my second soul
Your love fills all my needs
Baby when Iâ€™m with you, canâ€™t you see

I catch my breath, I lose my cool

I watch my heart break every rule
But when youâ€™re here with me
Iâ€™m complete

Youâ€™re the half that makes me whole
The missing piece, my second soul
Your love fills all my needs
Baby when Iâ€™m with you, canâ€™t you see

Iâ€™m satisfied, Iâ€™m so content
Now my world makes perfect sense
When youâ€™re here with me
Iâ€™m complete
Ooh Iâ€™m complete
Ooh, ooh, yeah, oh baby
