Here we are, Here we go again Approaching the moment when You find a way to get around whats wrong You say this baby, you say that it's nothing but idle chat Same old dance the same old song I know you feel it this tenstion in the air but you just sit here and act like it aint there

I just wanna know whats in your heart It's not that hard for you to open up and let me in honey not looking strong dont make you weak but what i really need is for you to shut up shut up and talk to me

Now heres your chance step up and take it I swear well make it just put your heart out on the line cuz I will be here to catch you if you fall baby and it'll make me love you even more

OH I just wanna know whats in your heart
but what I really need is for you to shut up shut up and talk to me aww

oh I just wanna know whats in your heart
shut up shut up
yeah
shut up shut up
yeah
and talk to me

mmm shut up and talk to me
