How do you remember your dreams, your dreams?
And do you understand your crime, your crime?
Sometimes the guideposts are hidden
Maybe, maybe you need a neon sign

Oh if you ever loved me, if you ever cared
If you think I'm worthy, come here, come here
If you ever loved me, if you ever cared
If you think I'm worthy, come

I know you've been to every circus
Just trying to take away your pain
No dear no, but please remember I'm your friend
I'm not to blame

If you ever loved me, if you ever cared
If you think I'm worthy, come here, come here
If you ever loved me, if you ever cared
If you think I'm worthy, come

I need a miracle, a sign
I want you to hold me, be kind

If you ever loved me, if you ever cared
If you think I'm worthy, come here, come here
If you ever loved me, if you ever cared
If you think I'm worthy, come here

If you ever cared
If you think I'm worthy, come here, come here
If you ever loved me, if you ever cared
If you think I'm worthy, come here
