can you change overnight when you sleep does your body fight can you go from punk to prep can you go from no to yes i thought that things change people but these people were the same as me no one i knew was any different did my mind just count to three....

seconds could change our minutes minutes could change our days days could change our lives everything can change our way do you know that you can change to something not inside your range you may not like what you get it could make your whole life turn to shit do you know that you can learn who's your friend and who is not if you change the truth may burn in just two....

going from black haired black shirts
black shoes
blue jeans
black sheen prom limozine
to blond haired cute tops
white shoes
nothing stops
the smiling face

the stars in the sky but we'll still have the forth of july
