You got me like that, you're what I'm craving you got me like that, you know I'm to blame and you got me like that, every girl's the same

Every girl's the same, with number one
the first guy,
fake a smile then all the damage is done cryin' all night

Started out doin' fine in the beggining every time, I belonged to you you posessed me with your lies controlled me with good byes I wasn't getting through

How should I be myself today what colour should I wear I promise I'll co-operate if you dont leave me here

the first guy,

you got me like that, you're what I'm craving
and you got me like that, every girl's the same fall into your game

Tell me what is wrong with me how couldnt you forsee us being happily who am I in me and you got reading up to do he's just not that into you

Why do I hate myself today It's because of what you said I've put in so much energy you never even cared

the first guy,

you got me like that, you're what I'm craving
cause every girl's the same, fall into your...

shoot me up with one more lie nothing could blow our night tonight come jack me up with one more lie gotta get enough before I die

you got me like that, you're what I'm craving

you got me like that, you're what I'm craving
and you got me like that, yeah we're all the same

the first guy,

the first guy,
Every girl's the same
