so many days
ive gone by without a trace i dont know what to do and what to say to many ways for you to come and stay in my mind ive waiting for you but there is one thing that ive forgot to say dont think im changing for you never ever will you hear me say that i cant make it alone you just cant change it now not before we see that it has gone through the window

out its side
never again to see
lost in the distance
dont know where to go

i have seen you inside the intercom what a waste to it all dont turn away just look around then youll see that its gone it bugs me more then words thats why you cant see that its

when the time has come for me to say goodbye ill look upon that moment i wont hide

dont know where to go [x2]

dont know where to go...
