Sunday morning
We were laying in bed just the two of us under the cover
Under the cover

With no warning
It all went wrong
You suddenly became more than my lover-a-a-ahh
I've been waiting so very long for you to say it to me
Say it to me
Tell me you love me
I'd be skating
Skating on thin ice if I don't agree-e-e-eee
So baby, baby, kiss me all night and maybe take it too far-aarr-aarr
Whatever!

I know that you were the one for me
But it took me by surprise
And if I say it back to you
I can't look you in the eye
But I don't want to loose you
And I don't want to confuse you
I guess that this my queue to give you my reply

(Chorus)
And you killed it
You killed it
You killed it with I love you

And you killed it
You killed it
You killed it with I love you

And you killed it with I love you
What am I supposed to say back to you
And you killed it with I love you, with I love you

I know it?s only
Only three little words that I seem to be so scared of I'm so scared of

So please show me
How to get these words off the tip of my tongue and out of my mind
I know that you were the one for me but it took me by surprise
But if I say it back to you
I can't look you in the eye
But I don't want to lose you
And I don't want to confuse you
I guess that this my queue to give you my reply

(Chorus)

I have been thinking about what you said
Three little words running round in my head There's no one else that I'd rather be next to
I guess what I'm trying to say is I love you

(Chorus x3)
