Little boy, little boy
White noise, new toys
Fucking off, coming on
Up-town, call it off
In and out, big shout
Day and night, layabout
Push it up, take it down
Put yourself around town

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I'm going to the place that we both knew once
To the place that you don't know now
It's way back when you were someone else
You've changed and I don't know how
I won't say please and I'm not on my knees
If I was that would be uncool
If there's anybody else I know what you would tell me
'Cause you told me that you'd tell me the truth

Yeah, yeah, yeah
You tell me that you tell me the truth
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Because you tell me that you tell me truth
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Because you tell me that you tell me truth
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Little boy, little boy
White noise, new toys
Fucking off, coming on
Up-town, call it off
In and out, big shout
Day and night, layabout
Push it up, take it down
Put yourself around town

I'm going to the place that we both knew once

And I know that I'm going alone
When I'm there, if I can I'll look for your heart
If I find it, I'll send it back home
You're a fool, you're a fool
You don't know what you done
Believe me, we could have been great
You think you're a man, you're not, you're a boy
And when you grow up it'll be too late

Yeah, yeah, yeah
And when you grow up it'll be too late
Yeah, yeah, yeah
And when you grow up it'll be too late
Yeah, yeah, yeah
And when you grow up it'll be too late
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Yeah, yeah, yeah
And when you grow up it'll be too late
Yeah, yeah, yeah
And when you grow up it'll be too late
Yeah, yeah, yeah
And when you grow up it'll be too late
Yeah, yeah, yeah
