

Lily Frost "Who Am I"

Visit "Who Am I" on MotoLyrics.com

Today, on the street
In the metro,
It's a melancholy day
No-one speaks
Passing you by
Wondering why

Today, like any day
Rolled out of bed
Talked on the telephone
Went to the doctor, she said
You're ok
Still I wonder

Who am I x 4

Today in the air
On the water
Ships pass you by
Clouds fantasize

Dragging shapes across the sky
Wondering why

Who am I x 4

Clarion crows for the courtsmans brigade
Centuries before on this very stage
Gypsies serenade, passed through DNA
And so it found its way

[Bridge]

Who am I x 4

Today on the street
In the metro,
It's a melancholy day
