Everybody speaks the language you don't wanna hear
But how to live and how to love
'Cause everybody speaks the language you don't wanna hear
You don't even wanna learn

My love is the desperate kind
You know it's hard for you to see
It seems impossible to heal
I know that is not what anyone wrote before me
This is only how I feel

A 1000 songs about the rain outside my window
A 1000 songs about these broken hearts
A 1000 words about what happened in between us
What tore the two of us apart

The clock is ticking and I know that you will have to leave
You leave me naked all alone
I know that this is not what anyone felt before me
But I can't take it anymore

A 1000 songs about the rain outside my window

A 1000 songs about these broken hearts
A 1000 words about what happened in between us
What tore the two of us a...

Too proud to cry, too proud to lose
Too scared to try and be refused
Right back and start over again
But there won't be a better day
When I can turn my head away
The present time will be back then

A 1000 songs about the rain outside my window
A 1000 songs about these broken hearts
A 1000 words about what happened in between us
What tore the two of us apart

Everybody speaks the language you don't wanna hear

But how to live and how to love
'Cause everybody speaks the language you don't
wanna hear
You don't even wanna learn
