"Love Will Tear The Soul"

Learning of the truth is never easy
But you must get hold of yourself
As a friend I feel I have to tell you
It's damaging your health

CHORUS

Love will tear the soul
Confuse the mind
Till you finally
Leave it behind
All you need is time
To heal the blindness in your eyes
Cause the feeling of lost and being lonely
Comes with goodbye

Repeat CHORUS

Normally I wouldn't know
Why fate has dealt you this cruel blow
Simply you're the victim of
Just a little thing called love gone wrong

Repeat CHORUS and fade.
