Lately I've been missing you
And spending the nights alone
I know it's late but my instincts say
Call you on the telephone

No one told me if I had to fade
Life without you would be an empty place
Honey I need you again

CHORUS

Nothing on earth can keep me from you
So I'm turning round and coming home
The girl I love's in another place
And that's where I belong

Baby I apologise
For selfishy walking away
But deep down inside under the pride
This heart has suffered the same

Honey I try to have an open mind
Respect the courage I had to find
I need you again

Repeat CHORUS

Nothing in the world can keep us apart
So I'm sending out an S.O.S.
The love I need's just a breath away
Can't be someone else

Repeat CHORUS to fade.
