I have to torn my heart in two
Though I live with her I'm here with you
And you my love are spoken for
But the tenderness between us
Has brought you here once more

But you know

CHORUS

To someone else we both belong
We carry on though we know it's wrong
With someone else we both should be
But neither one us can turn and leave
No-one knows we feel this way
At the office where we work each day
Playing love like hide and seek
But here is no choice we've got to be Totally discreet

Because

Repeat CHORUS

And oh how easy
We can be led astray
In just one single moment
The world will stop and you'll never be the same

Repeat CHORUS and fade.
