"That Special Something"

There are reasons to think we've grown apart
To tell the truth it would surely break my heart
Time has shown the need for us to trust
Those feelings to which we should adjust
All I have to say in this
You will be the one I miss
So listen before you walk away

CHORUS

That special something is so hard to find
In moments of pleasure the eyes of love are blind
That special something came when I found you
The feeling moved so through and through
Finding trouble holding back the tears
Alone at night when things are not so clear
Losing you will cause me so much pain
I appeal to you and to try again
All I have to say in this
You will be the one I miss
So listen before you walk away

Repeat CHORUS and fade.
