"Tonight Will Be The Night"

There is something between you and me
Show me show me if you agree

Did not force it
Made no move
It happened naturally
Growing stronger

CHORUS

Tonight will be the night
Let's make it right
And we could last forever
Love will take its place
And fill the space
That love can leave forever
Fate was rarely ever this kind
Guiding you here to meet me on time

We were people Till today Both leading separate lives
But it's easy to decide

Repeat CHORUS

Can't begin to emphasize
The strenght of what I'm feeling inside
Don't you see this heart won't be deprived

Repeat CHORUS and fade.
