How can there be no love?
No feeling of passion too
The way we were dancing, love
How could it be I'm through?

We danced the night together
Until the morning light
Baby, do you remember
The music in our eyes?

Such an enchanting evening
A lovers' romantic night
The moon and stars are leaving
The sea was glowing bright

We'll spend the night together
Until the morning light
Baby, do you remember
The music in our eyes?

We were unexpected lovers
Not just ordinary lovers
Sharing unexpected love
My true love

We were unexpected lovers
Not just ordinary lovers
Sharing unexpected love
My true love

We love like no other lovers
Like no other lovers do
The way we kissed each other
And helped each other through

We'll spend the night together
Until the morning light
Baby, do you remember
The music in our eyes?

When will we ever love again
And share another night?

Should we ever meet again
To love each other right?

We'll spend the night together
Until the morning light
Baby, do you remember
The music in our eyes?

We were unexpected lovers
Not just ordinary lovers
Sharing unexpected love
My true love

We were unexpected lovers
Not just ordinary lovers
Sharing unexpected love
My true love
