Lookin' back, the day you left
Where you went, I can only guess
Where I'll be, some other day
A memory, with all I had to say
You gave the love, you had to spare
And in return, I built an island there
When I dream, I see your face
That's when we laugh, somewhere in outer space

The angels over me have seen me cry in agony
The angels over me they all believe this side of me

Growin' up, without a cause
I hear the tune, of my own applause
There ain't no right, when there's a wrong

It's my mistake, I knew it all along
I've been a fool, what's done is done
I can't erase, and I refuse to run
I'm beggin' you, to please forgive
My heart is true, it's just the way I live

The angels over me have seen me cry in agony
The angels over me they all believe this side of me

They've seen me cry! (x3)

The angels over me have seen me cry in agony
They've see me cry!
The angels over me they all believe this side of me
They've seen me cry!
