black and white
leave me alone somewhere in between
i hate you
what i hate about me

why can't I i know exactly how you think i'm just as dirty down inside, as you could ever be, but girl, you know you can't control what you do not own you and I, we can't let go, and we don't control

but you don't remember
what you used to be, like
you don't remember
who you used to be

because you lie
you lie
you were so stuck from the start hangin around, we should have never fell apart
i hate you
what i hate about me

we fade
away
so we fade

what you used to be, like

girl, you bring me
down into this hell

pain i've never felt

and we fuck, and we fight
and we fight, and we fuck
and we fuck, and we fight

take back this pain, this pain
girl you know

fuck me, fuck me, fuck you

don't touch me, and i won't touch you so back off

cuz you lie
