The end is near, the summer days
All the great things go away
Feel the cold comin' 'round again
Everything's gonna change again

Down another day, down another day

Oh, the winter I adore
Summer's gone forever more
Some days you come back to me
Seasons change, set me free

Down another day, down another day

Don't have to bore you with details
(I'll never let you down)
And every mornin', the sun rise
(Will never let you down)
If I could hold you tomorrow
(I'll never let you down)
And when she's cold in the ocean
(Will never let you down)

The end is near, my winter fling
Change is melting everything
Now it's time, to sing for love
Season come, season go

Down another day, down another day

Don't have to bore you with details
(I'll never let you down)
And every mornin', the sun rise
(Will never let you down)
If I could hold you tomorrow
(I'll never let you down)
And when she's cold in the ocean
(Will never let you down)

I keep sayin' goodbye, sayin' goodbye
Keep sayin' goodbye
And she's always comin' back, she keeps comin' back

She keeps comin' back

Well I keep sayin' goodbye, sayin' goodbye
Keep sayin' goodbye
And she's always comin' back, she keeps comin' back
You keep comin' back

Don't have to bore you with details
(I'll never let you down)
And every mornin', the sun rise
(Will never let you down)
If I could hold you tomorrow
(I'll never let you down)
And when she's cold in the ocean
(Will never let you down)

Down another day, down another day
(Will never let you down)
Down another day, down another day
