I just read your letter
It says that you'll be gone for a while Everything was getting better
I guess I'm just a fool strung out

What to do? Life is through
Just want to kill myself for you
I wonder just how sympathetic you'll be You've come to take me under
And I've forgotten all about me

What to do? My life is through
Just want to kill myself for you
So tell me why you say goodbye
And tell me why you're fuckin' up my whole life?
Yeah, fuckin' up my whole life

So, I'm on my way, I leave today
If I get away, it'll be OK, it'll be OK

I'm looking out a window
Into a world that's taken you from me and I'm feeling so disgusted
How pathetic can I possibly be?

What to do? Life is through
Just want to kill myself for you
So tell me why you say goodbye
And tell me why you're fuckin' up my whole life
Fuckin' up my whole life

So, I'm on my way, I leave today
If I get away, it'll be OK, it'll be OK

If there's a better place you can take me
A better life you can give me
Whatever place I can start all over
Then I would never need what you gave me

Never need you to save me

And never feel like this life is over

If there's a better place you can take me
A better life you can give me
Whatever place I can start all over
Then I would never need what you gave me

And never need you to save me
And never feel like this life is over
Feel like this life is over so

I'm on my way, I leave today
If I can get away, it'll be OK, it'll be OK
