Heartbreak is a headache like a toothache or an earthquake
Spontaneous combustion leaves a taste that so disgustin'
And it don't go away too fast, I'm a window made of broken glass
I've never needed anythin', anythin' but you

And that's what's wrong
(That's what's wrong)
That's what I get
(That's what I get)
For feelin' this
(For feelin' this)
Anyway
Just let me know
(Just let me know)
All I'll miss
(All I'll miss)
When I'm gone

Just throw it all away
(You let me down)
Like everybody says
(You let me down)
Write me off like yesterday
(You let me down)
Oh, I guess that you're not good enough to be with me

Rumors are tumors of the sick and mainly useless
When you come to me with these things
It's the shit that I can't deal with Still I gave you all of me faithfulness and honesty Prayed for God to bring you near along with all these tears

And that's what wrong
(That's what wrong)
That's what I get
(That's what I get)
For feelin' this
(For feelin' this)

Anyway
Just let me know
(Just let me know)
All I'll miss
(All I'll miss)
When I'm gone

Just throw it all away
(You let me down)
Like everybody says
(You let me down)
Write me off like yesterday
(You let me down)
Oh, I guess that you're not
Good enough to be with, good enough to be with me

I'd like to thank you
For lettin' me know I can feel this way
Feel this way
Lettin' me know I can feel

Just throw it all away
(You let me down)
Like everybody says
(You let me down)
Write me off like yesterday
(You let me down)
Oh, I guess that you're not good enough to be with me

Just throw it all away
(You let me down)
Like everybody says
(You let me down)
Write me off like yesterday
(You let me down)
Oh, I guess that you're not
Good enough to be with, good enough to be with me
