Hello.
My name is....

Do you know how long it's been?
Since we've shared this bottle of gin?
Like childhood friends.
The fun never ended.

How long has it been?
Like 15 years.
I remember.
You used to take away the fears.

Amy.
It's Amy.
Amy, you remember me, right?
It's Linda.
And this is my other friend Delta.

I've missed you so much.

Lindy, what went on over the years?
'Cause I've dated some losers who spent most of their money on beers.
Candy-coated lemon straws we put in our drink.
Can you remember? If you can't, really think.

Chorus

We are reunited
I'm excited.
Honey, I'm delighted.

Chorus
