I try my best to live a good life
Walk down that straight and narrow street
My mama told me go to live right
Beware the strangers that you meet
But she never, ever laid her eyes on you
If she did, she'd know it's true

I resits temptation when he's knocking at my door
Got no time for trouble, keep away
But I've got one big problem and I don't know what to do
I've got one bad habit, you

I saw you coming from the distance like a falling dollar bill
You're thinking woman's not mad, I think I want you, think I will
When my mind leaves, when you smile, my body wants to stay
What can I do, what can I say

I resits temptation when he's knocking at my door
Got no time for trouble, keep away
But I've got one big problem and I don't know what to
do
I've got one bad habit, you

And I go, oh no every time you're near My resistance disappears
You play me, sting me, turn me upside down
God knows why I stick around

I resits temptation when he's knocking at my door
Got no time for trouble keep away
But I've got one big problem and I don't know what to
do
I've got one bad habit, you

I gave up lying, staying up too late
I gave up on [Incomprehensible]
But I've got one big problem and I don't know what to
do

I've got one bad habit, you

I gave up drinking and smoking cigarettes
And I gave up placing loosin' bets
But I've got one big problem and I don't know what to
do
I've got one bad habit, you

I gave up sockeling everyday I head the gym
I gave up caughing on the wind
But I've got one big problem and I don't know what to
do
I've got one bad habit, you
