Over the rainbow
In ruby red shoes
With a case of unchaseable blues
Never knowing quite where you're going just
That you're going too far to keep
The heartache from going too deep
Nothing but scarecrows to show you the way
And the band full of pipers to play
Play along, baby, right or wrong maybe
There's a yellow brick road to follow
Find your way home, where you belong
Safe in a melody
Cause a singer goes on singing
Like a song is her best friend
And music is the rainbow's end

Sing for your supper
Bewitch with a smile
All the rates and a stage for the while
You can make it through
One more old soft shoe
And a taught song or two
Wanting you turn back late
Cry all our tears
Chase all fears away
Cause a singer goes on singing
Like a song is her best friend
And music is the rainbow's end

Little girl so lost
What did you find
And what did it cost
Finding your way home, where you belong
Safe in a melody
Cause a singer goes on singing
Like a song is her best friend
And music is the rainbow's end

Spotlight all end??
Make the music climb
When the sun is down

And sing it one more time
For you and your best friend
The rainbow's end
