Broken homes and resentment
Scars that never fade
Ridiculed and rejected
Our faith has been betrayed
Old man, we've paid for your mistakes
Knowing you'll never know just who we are

Searching for a future
In the forward of tomorrow
With eyes open wide
Dreams can seem so hollow

Their narrow minds and empty hearts
Parade their masquerade
And the strength of our convictions
They underestimate
This violent world, shows no restraint
Underneath thousands strong waiting to take them all down

Traitors and detractors
Attempt to undermine
Their deceit and ascension
Apprehended by time
Screaming for existence
In a new day that is ours
Crucified by conviction
Reminded by these scars

Broken homes and resentment
Scars that never fade
Ridiculed and rejected
Our faith has been betrayed
Old man, we've paid for your mistakes
Knowing we're more than you'll ever know

Searching for a future
In the forward of tomorrow
With eyes open wide
Dreams can seem so hollow
