Been
Coming down for a long time
Changes
Coming down on me
Can't seem to carry them all now
Been wishing there was someone else I could be
Hey, now, who really cares?
Hey, won't somebody listen
Let me say what's been on my mind
Can I bring it out to you
I need someone to talk to
And no one else will spare me the time

I used
To think of ferris wheel light sounds
The Friday
Hum of neons and blue
But now they're like circular cages
Of grated tin and rusted wind
Hey, now, who really cares?
Hey, won't somebody listen
Let me say what's been on my mind
Can I bring it out to you
I need someone to talk to
And no one else will spare me the time
