If you were my man
If you were my man
If you were my man
If you were my man

It wakes me in the morning
It drives me through my day
How
I would treat you
If you were my my man

There's a great
And lively humour
In all of this
You know
That until
You let me in
To lie beside
Your soul
While our skin
Can only
Pretend to bend
And you know
That's no touch
And you know
That's no touch
No touch at all
No touch at all

And it wakes me in the morning
How I want to hold you
Yeah

But until you let me in
Well, there's no love at

And it wakes me in the morning
It drive me through my day
How I want to treat you
Like a man
If you were
If you were my man

Please be my man
Please be my man
